(ENTRAL PARK GARDEM, THEODORE THOMAS' THEODORE THOMAS' THEODORE THOMAS' THEODORE THOMAS' THEODORE THOMAS' It is with much pleasure that Mr. THEODORE THOMAS announces that he will have the honor of commencing his THIRD SKASON OF GARDEN CONCERTS

AT CENTRAL PARK GARDEN, ON CERTS

ON MONDAY EVENING, MAT E. 1992.

To be continued nightly throughout the entire summer. No efforts will be spared to add in every possible way to the attractive features of these popular solves. The Orchestra has been largely increased, and numerically and individually will be the most important body of artists ever engaged in this city for the purpose of summer amusement. Several new solotists will be introduced during the season, and many interesting additions will be made to the extensive repertoire of Mr. Thomas' orchestra.

The programme will present the most interesting noveltness of the day, both American and European, and, while entering for every healthy taste, will not be unmindulf of the classics of the day, both American and European, and, while entering for every healthy taste, will not be unmindulf of the classics of the day, both American and European, and, while entering for every healthy taste, will not be unmindulf of the classics of the great masters.

The Central Park Garden, where these sutertainments will take place, is situated on Seventh avenue, directly facing the entrance to the Park. The Broadway, Seventh avenue and Bell Railroad cars pass the door, while the Sixth and Eighth avenue cars are distant but a short block.

The establishment is entirely new, and has been erected expressly for the purpose to which it is dedicated by Mr. Remsen Appleby. It may safely be affirmed that there is no place of similar magnitude on this continent. It embraces a concert. It all which is unsurpassed in America, capable of accommodating 3,000 people; at daining room, a buffet, and, in a word, all the usual departments
